

Introduction to Nuclear Knowledge Management

Objective

The Nuclear Knowledge Management course is aimed at the study of basic approaches, methods and tools of knowledge management as a key resource in the enterprises of the nuclear industry. Much attention is paid to the specifics of knowledge management at the enterprises of the nuclear industry, methods and tools of knowledge management, as well as assessing the maturity of enterprises in the field of knowledge management.

Brief Curriculum

1. Knowledge Concepts with an Introduction to Nuclear Knowledge.
2. Knowledge Management (KM) History and Development.
3. Knowledge Management in Nuclear Science and Technology.
4. Managing Tacit Knowledge.
5. Managing Nuclear Information.
6. Nuclear Knowledge Management Organizational Challenges.
7. Implementing Knowledge Management in Nuclear Organizations.
8. Nuclear Knowledge Management Maturity Assessment.

Target group

Higher school students

Qualification requirements

EQF level 5-7

Good level of English

Host organisation

National Research Nuclear University MEPhI (Moscow, Russia)

Tel.: +7 (495) 788-5699 ext. 8539, E-mail: info@mephi.ru

Language

English

Duration

1 week (40 hours)

Contact details

Nikolay Geraskin

NIGeraskin@mephi.ru

